Code of Conduct and Discharge Policy

WindWalkers recognizes that the primary interest of WindWalkers' volunteers is the provision of safe, quality services and activities to participants in our programs. To that end this policy has been written to provide an understanding of appropriate conduct and to provide consistency in the administration of our agency.

On rare occasions, the conduct of a volunteer may be such that it disrupts the orderly operations of the program, the maintenance of a positive program environment, or the interests and safety of staff, volunteers, participants, and horses. In recognition of the responsibility inherent in the delivery of services provided by WindWalkers Equine Assisted Learning and Therapy Center, WindWalkers asks all volunteers to respect the rights, dignity and well-being of all individuals. WindWalkers' volunteers also respect the integrity and well-being of programs, facility, horses and animals.

The following conduct or behaviors constitute a breach of this code and if evidenced may result in discharge from WindWalkers' programs:

- Working under the influence or use of alcohol during the program.
- Being in possession of, distributing, selling, using or working under the influence of illegal drugs during the program, or while operating WindWalkers' Center owned vehicles or equipment.
- Engaging in negligent or improper conduct leading to damage of WindWalkers' owned/leased, facility owned/leased, or program participant owned/leased property.
- Violation of safety, dress or health rules.
- o Engaging in sexual or unlawful harassment.
- o Exhibiting excessive absenteeism.
- o Insubordination or verbally, emotionally or physically abusing program participants and/or family, or other personnel.
- o Verbally, emotionally or physically abusing program or facility horses and animals.
- Engaging in dishonest behavior or theft.
- o Engaging in disorderly conduct.
- Disclosing confidential information.

•	a volunteer assisting in the WindWalkers Therapeutic Riding Program(s nd fully understand the role and responsibilities of a WindWalkers cente Walkers center code of conduct.
